Prof. Cox Dead—Dead Man Found—Shot in the Leg—Cade Court House Gives Way—Lightning Starts a Fire—Fair Date Changed—A Carpenter's Fall.

Prof. Cox Passes Away.

Prof. S. F. Cox died at Trenton Sunday night, Sept. 8, from the injury received in alighting from a moving train on the night of August 26th. He struck on his head, crushing the skull at the base of the brain, rendering him unconscious and paralyzing his vocal organs and most of his body. His condition was known to be hopeless from the first and it is a surprise that he lingered for nearly two weeks. He never regained complete consciousness, though there were lucid intervals in which he tried to talk, but could not do so. The nature of his injury was such that an operation could not be performed and his friends could only wait the end they knew was near at hand.

The funeral services were held at Trenton yesterday at 2:30 p. m. The interment followed at that place.

Three Great Games This Week.

The celebrated Maysville team arrived in the city yesterday morning and the first of a series of three games was played in the afternoon. They will cross bats again this afternoon and will complete the series tomorrow afternoon. Maysville has defeated several League clubs this season and parties wishing to see three up-to-date games would do well to be on hand at each game. Our home team has been greatly strengthened recently and the boys feel pretty sure of winning at least two of the games this week.

Nashville and Hopkinsville Play Even.

The games of ball between the Southern League team, of Nashville, and our home nine last week resulted in a draw. On Thursday the locals won by a score of 7 to 6. Both clubs played fine ball and the game was very close and exciting. The game Friday was witnessed by a very large crowd, but some costly errors by the locals in the second inning gave the game to the league boys by the score of 8 to 5. The league team made five of their runs in the third inning, but were unable to score but twice afterward. The home boys are convinced that they could win two out of three games from the leaguers.

New Committees to be Chosen.

Under a rule adopted by the recent State convention, all Democratic committees will be re-organized on November 6, immediately after the election. In cities having registration the Democrats will vote for committeemen at the registration polls Tuesday October 1. Where there is no registration, the Democrats will meet at the voting precincts at 2 o'clock Saturday Oct. 5 and elect the committeemen to qualify a month later. The terms of all committeemen will expire Nov. 6. There will be no separate city committees, the party organization being simplified.

Official Majority 389.

The District Committee met at Cernlean Springs Friday and formally declared Judge Linn the nominee for circuit judge. The official returns were as follows:

	LINN.	MORROW.
Call way	985	81
Christian	342	1927
Lyon	399	158
Trigg	468	189
Total	2144	1755.
Majority	389.

A Frightful Fall.

Mr. John Overby, a carpenter, met with a painful accident at Gracey last Thursday while at work on a house. While standing upon one of the joists he lost his balance and fell a distance of fifteen feet, fracturing both arms and injuring one of his shoulders quite badly. Dr. D. E. Bell was immediately called and rendered the necessary medical aid, and at last accounts the injured man was getting along as well as could be expected.

Field And Pettit.

Gen Jas. G. Field, of Virginia, recent candidate for vice president, and Col. Thos. S. Pettit, Populist candidate for governor, will speak at the court house at 1:30 p. m. to-morrow, on the political issues of the day. Everybody is invited to hear them.

It Was a Canard.

The report published in several daily papers that a farmer named Fagan had fallen from his barn and had been killed near Casky, in this county, was a groundless canard. The only man of any such name in the county is Mr. J. L. Eagan, of Pembroke, and he is alive and healthy and denies that he has been killed. No such accident has occurred in this county.

DO YOU KNOW HOW TO VOTE.

You Think You Do, But It Is Doubtful If You're Right.

The last legislature made some important changes in the manner of electing councilmen in fourth-class cities. There will be no separate ward elections, but all officers must be elected at the county precincts. The charter says on this point: "In any city of the fourth-class, which has now or may hereafter be divided into wards, the clerk of the county court shall, in addition to the ballots prepared for the state, district, county and precinct elections, prepare or cause to be prepared, a ballot book for each ward in said city; and if any ward lies in more than one regular voting precinct, he shall prepare or cause to be prepared, for each precinct in such ward a ballot book." A voter desiring and entitled to a vote in the city election shall be given, by the officers of the election, in addition to the ballot of the state, county, district or precinct, a ballot for the ward in which he is entitled to vote, which ballot the voter will mark and fold in the same manner and at the same time, and deliver to the officers of the election in the same manner and at the same time, as is required by the general election law, which the officers will deposit in ballot box as fixed by the general election law. The officers of the election will count the ballots cast for each respective candidate for the city offices," etc.

It will be seen that much confusion is liable to result from this kind of voting, unless the voters are thoroughly informed. To tell what ward a voter is entitled to vote in, it is necessary that voters should be registered in their proper wards as qualified voters. A voter may be entitled to vote for one ticket and not for the other, since he may have moved from one ward to another and not moved out of his precinct. Some idea of the complications that may arise may be gathered from the fact that it will take 15 ballot books to operate the seven ward elections in the four precincts. Precinct No. 1 will need three books, since it embraces parts of wards 1, 5 and 7. Precinct 2 will need books for wards 4 and 5. Precinct 3 for wards 1, 2, 3, 4 and 6. Precinct 4 for wards 1, 2, 3, 6 and 7. It will be necessary for the officers to decide upon the qualifications of the voters for both elections and the official challengers will have their hands full in keeping the run of things. It will require close watching to keep illegal votes from being located in close wards, and to that end every voter should be required to register by wards in the registration Oct. 1st. Even with this precaution, there is likely to be much trouble and confusion.

Lightning Causes a Fire.

Early Saturday morning the electric wire entering Bassett & Co's. store was struck by lightning and the current passed into the store setting fire to the drapery surrounding the chandelier. The alarm was quickly given and the fire department turned out and promptly extinguished the flames. The stock was greatly damaged, however, by water and smoke, the extent not being known, as Mr. Bassett was in Cincinnati at the time. The loss is covered by insurance in a number of companies.

Worms Drove Him to Suicide.

TRENTON, Ky., Sept. 9.—At noon Aug. 30, James Warfield, a colored man cropping with Col. J. T. Evans, said to his hands, "Go home and get dinner and I will be on soon." He was never seen afterwards until today when his dead body was found in a deep spring about a mile from where he parted from his hands, ten days ago. He was covered in water to his face. His body was in good condition. Esq. J. C. Mimms held an inquest and the jury returned a verdict of drowning. It is supposed he became insane from worrying over tobacco worms and committed suicide.

Hanbery Will Get Well.

(Princeton Banner.)

Mr. F. J. Hanbery, who was shot by Herbert H. Sanders, is still improving and will almost certainly recover. Sanders is in jail. His examining trial has not been held and probably will not be until Hanbery gets well enough to appear against him.

The G. A. R. Meeting.

Visitors by the thousands are pouring into Louisville and the encampment this week will fill Louisville to its utmost capacity to entertain. The school houses have been cleared of desks and 20,000 cots provided in them for the visitors. The parades occur to-day and to-morrow.

Fair Date Changed.

The fair has been postponed one week on account of Sam Jones' meeting Oct. 6 and will be held on Oct. 17, 18, and 19.

GETTING READY

FOR THE PRESS CONVENTION SEPTEMBER 23.

The Preparations Well Under Way and not a Hitch Expected.

The committee on finances is meeting with substantial encouragement from most of the business men and citizens, in the matter of entertaining the Kentucky Press Association Sept. 23 and 24. Subscriptions are being made with the customary liberality of our people. The canvass of the city is not yet complete, but enough has been subscribed to insure the success of the meeting. As the time approaches many are hunting up the committee to subscribe voluntarily, since invitations to both the ball and banquet will necessarily be based upon the subscription list. There will be reserved for local parties not exceeding 200 seats at the banquet, and about 150 of these have been taken. Those who may have been overlooked, should lose no time in getting on the list. The capacity of the banquet hall is limited and after the list is made up there will be no chance to add other names.

Secretary Gaines has already issued transportation to 120 press people and he estimates the number at fully 200. This will insure the largest attendance in the history of the association, although the hangers-on are being rigidly excluded by iron-clad rules. The visitors will be made up of entirely bona fide newspaper people and many persons who have been in the habit of attending under one pretext or another will be shut out of the privileges accorded to members. Under no condition whatever will the railroads carry anybody to Atlanta except press people, on the special train, and they require the secretary's guarantee that none but members of the association will be given certificates or badges.

The Atlanta train will leave early Wednesday morning, at an hour yet to be fixed. The ball Monday night and the banquet Tuesday night will both be held at Hotel Latham. The dining room will seat 200 and the main hall about 200 more and the speakers will be placed in a position to be seen from all of the tables.

There will be numerous toasts at the banquet, responded to by some of the brightest members of the association. There will be no wines at the banquet, but there will be no lack of good things to eat.

The only business session will be from 9 to 12 Tuesday morning. The mayor will deliver an address of welcome, which will be responded to by President Nall.

The Auxiliary Committee's Decision.

The City Committee met Tuesday night, Sept. 3, pursuant to call of the Chairman, to investigate the vote of the primary election held Aug. 14, 1895.

At said meeting the Chairman and all members of the committee were present. Depositions were read and acted upon as follows:

Antonio Datillo's vote declared illegal on the ground not being an American citizen.

Augustine Datillo declared illegal on the same grounds.

Neither of the Datillo's had now, or had ever had their naturalization papers.

W. E. Smith's vote declared illegal on the grounds of not having been a resident of the county six months prior to the November election.

E. J. Winstead's vote declared illegal on the grounds that he claimed his residence in Nebo, Hopkins county, Ky.

N. A. Trenary's vote declared illegal on the grounds of not being a resident of this State. His home being in Greenbrier, Tenn.

From the evidence furnished us it was found that all of the above votes were cast in person or by proxy for M. C. Forbes, and we, the committee, cancel said votes.

The following votes which were in question, L. P. Guthrie, R. A. Winstead, J. T. Goode, R. R. Donaldson, J. H. Anderson, F. C. Gephart, E. A. Cottrell from the testimony furnished us we declare to be legal voters, all of which were cast in person or by proxy for M. C. Forbes.

We also find the vote of St. Clair Leavell cast for J. D. Ware to be legal.

We, the committee, find the legal votes in the Second Ward to stand as follows:

For M. C. Forbes.....42

"J. D. Ware.....46

Total legal votes.....88

And hereby declare J. D. Ware the Democratic nominee for Councilman for the Second Ward in Hopkinsville, Ky.
